Joint Notice of Privacy Practices

Revision Date: 8/1/2018 / Effective Date: April 14, 2003

This notice describes how health information about your child may be disclosed and how you can get access to this information. Please review it carefully.

When we refer to your child, we also mean you.

If you have any questions about this notice, please contact the Valley Children's Healthcare Privacy Officer at 559-353-5401.

Who does this notice cover?

This is a joint notice and describes Valley Children's Healthcare's (which includes Valley Children's Hospital, Valley Children's Medical Group, Valley Children's Specialty Medical Group, Valley Children's Primary Care Group, and Valley Children's Homecare) practices and that of:

- All employees, staff, volunteers and other personnel whose work is under direct control of Valley Children's Healthcare.
- All affiliated physicians who provide care to our patients.
- Any health care professional authorized to enter information into your child's medical record.
- Any sites operated by Valley Children's Healthcare.
- Any clinics operated by Valley Children's Hospital, Valley Children's Medical Group, Valley Children's Specialty Medical Group, or Valley Children's Primary Care Group.

Our pledge regarding medical information

In the course of receiving services from Valley Children's Healthcare, you will provide us with personal information about your child's health with the understanding that this information will be kept confidential. We create a record of the care and services your child receives through the hospital, clinic, or doctor's office. We need this record to provide your child with quality care and to comply with certain legal requirements. This notice applies to all of the records of your child's care generated at Valley Children's Healthcare, its clinics, or doctor's offices, whether made by healthcare personnel or your child's personal doctor. Your child's personal doctor may have different policies or notices regarding the doctor's use and disclosure of your child's medical information created in the doctor's office or clinic (if outside of Valley Children's Healthcare).

This notice will tell you about the ways in which we may use and disclose information about your child. We will also describe your rights and certain obligations we have regarding the use and disclosure of such information.

Valley Children's Healthcare Responsibilities

- We are required to protect the privacy of your child's personal health information.
- We must give this notice of our privacy practices and legal duties regarding health information to anyone who asks for it.
- We must follow the terms of the notice that are currently in effect.
- We are required to notify you if a breach of your child's unsecured personal health information occurs.

Our right to change this notice

We reserve the right to change our Policies and Procedures, as described in this Notice, at any time. We reserve the right to apply these changes to any health information which we already have, as well as to any health information we receive in the future. We will post a copy of the current notice in a prominent location. The new notice will include an effective and revision date.

How we may use or disclose your health information

The following categories describe different ways that we use and disclose information. For each category of uses or disclosures we will explain what we mean and try to give some examples. Not every use or disclosure in a category will be listed. However, all of the ways we are permitted to use and disclose information will fall within one of the categories.

For Treatment.

We will use information about your child to provide him/her with medical treatment or services. This means we will disclose health information about your child to doctors, clinicians, nurses, technicians, medical students, or other Valley Children's Healthcare personnel who are involved in taking care of your child.

For example, your child may be treated by his/her physician at a primary care practice who may refer your child to the Valley Children's Healthcare Pulmonology Clinic for care of your child's asthma. The primary care practice physician may need to share health information with the pulmonologist. We may disclose medication orders and care plans to school nurses for the care of your child during school hours. Different departments of Valley Children's Hospital may also share health information about your child in order to coordinate the different services that your child needs, such as prescriptions, lab work and x-rays. We may share information about your child to individuals outside the hospital or healthcare network who may need it in order to provide you with medical treatment or services after you leave the hospital or healthcare network. This may include, but is not limited to primary care physicians and referring physicians, or dentists.

Valley Children's Healthcare participates in the Central Valley Health Information Exchange (the "CVHIE"), which is an electronic health record that is shared with other health care providers who participate in the CVHIE, and in other certain limited circumstances, with other health care providers who are not CVHIE participants. Your electronic health record may also be available electronically for a health care provider to access when it is determined that you require emergent care.

For Payment.

We will use your child's health information, and disclose it to others, as necessary to obtain payment for the services we provide to you. For example, we may need to provide health information about surgery that your child received at the hospital so your health plan will pay us or reimburse you for the surgery. We may also tell your health plan about a treatment your child is going to receive to obtain prior authorization for care or to determine whether your plan will cover the treatment.

For Health Care Operations.

We will use your child's health information for activities that are necessary to run the hospital and make sure that all of our patients receive quality care. For example, we may use medical information to review our treatment and services and to evaluate the performance of our staff. We may also combine medical information about many hospital patients to decide what additional services the hospital should offer, what services are not needed, and whether certain new treatments are effective. We may also disclose information to doctors, clinicians, nurses, technicians, medical students, or other Valley Children's Healthcare personnel for review and learning purposes. We may also combine the medical information we have with medical information from other hospitals to compare how we are doing and see where we can make improvements in the care and services we offer. We may also review medical information as part of our business planning and development.

Appointment Reminders.

We will use and disclose health information to contact you as a reminder that your child has an appointment for treatment or medical care at the hospital, clinic, or physician office. This may include texting you of your child's appointment.

Treatment Alternatives.

We may use health information to inform you about possible treatment options or alternatives that may be of interest to you.

Health-Related Benefits, Products and Services.

We may use health information to inform you of health-related products, benefits or services that may be of interest to you.

Health Fairs/Screenings.

We may use your child's information to contact you with the results of screenings. We may keep a copy of your screenings to verify that your child received screenings at a health fair.

Patient Reunions.

At times we sponsor reunions for various groups such as Neonatal Intensive Care graduates, to celebrate their successes. If you/your child are a graduate of such a program, we may use your child's information to contact you and invite them to the reunions.

Fundraising.

We may use your child's health information to contact you to ask for donations to Valley Children's Healthcare and its operations. We may disclose information to a foundation related to Valley Children's Healthcare for the same purpose. If you do not want Valley Children's Healthcare to contact you for fundraising efforts, contact the Valley Children's Healthcare Privacy Officer at 9300 Valley Children's Place, Mailstop GE26, Madera, CA 93636-8762 to opt out.

Patient Appreciation Letters / Pictures / Cards.

Pictures, letters or cards that are mailed or delivered to a Valley Children's Healthcare location may be displayed at the location to which the card, picture, or letter was addressed.

Valley Children's Hospital Directory.

We may list your child in our hospital directory if your child is a patient at the hospital. The listing includes your child's name, location in the hospital, his/her general condition (e.g., fair, stable, etc.). We will also list your child's religion in the directory, but will disclose that information only to members of the clergy. Except for members of the clergy, we will only disclose the information in the directory to individuals who ask for your child by name. If you ask, we will not list you in the directory, or we will omit any information you ask us to omit.

We may also participate in activities with your child where volunteers may be involved with the care of your child. These volunteers may know that your child is at the hospital. This may include volunteers through Valley Children's Healthcare guilds.

Individuals Involved in Your Child's Care or Payment for Your Child's Care.

We may release information about your child to his/her personal representative unless you tell us in advance not to do so. Unless there is a specific written request from you stating otherwise, we may also tell your family or friends your child's condition and that your child is in the hospital. In addition, we may disclose medical information about your child to an entity assisting in a disaster relief effort so that your family can be notified about your child's condition, status and location.

Research.

Under certain circumstances, we may disclose your child's information in connection with research projects. Federal rules govern disclosure of your health information for research purposes without your authorization; however, federal rules also require a patient's informed consent prior to the receipt of health care services as part of a research project and adequate safeguards to protect the privacy of your child's health information.

Business Associates.

Valley Children's contracts with outside entities that perform business services for us, such as billing companies, management consultants, quality assurance reviewers, accountants or attorneys. In certain circumstances, we may need to share your child's medical information with a business associate so it can perform a service on our behalf. We will have a written contract in place with the business associate requiring protection of the privacy and security of your child's medical information.

Legal Requirement to Disclose Information.

We will disclose your child's health information when we are required by law to do so. This includes reporting information to government agencies that have the legal responsibility to monitor the health care system. For instance, we may be required to disclose your child's health information, and the information of others, if we are audited by Medicare or Medicaid. We will also disclose your child's health information when we are required to do so by a court order or other judicial or administrative process.

To Avert a Serious Threat to Health and Safety.

We may disclose health information if we decide that the disclosure is necessary to prevent serious harm or threat to your child's health and safety or the health and safety of the public or other individual. The disclosure will only be made to someone who is able to prevent or reduce the threat.

Organ and Tissue Donation.

If your child is an organ donor, we may release information to organizations that handle organ procurement or organ, eye or tissue transplantation or to an organ donation bank, as necessary to facilitate organ or tissue donation and transplantation.

Public Health Activities.

We may disclose medical information about your child for public health activities. We will only make this disclosure if you agree or when required or authorized by law. These activities generally include the following:

- to prevent or control disease, injury or disability including but not limited to the reporting of sexually transmitted diseases, tuberculosis, positive HIV results, etc.
- to report births and deaths;
- to report the abuse or neglect of children, elders and dependent adults;
- to report reactions to medications or problems with products; to notify people of recalls of products they may be using;

- to notify a person who may have been exposed to a disease or may be at risk for contracting or spreading a disease or condition including dog bite and environmental agents;
- to notify the appropriate government authority if we believe a patient has been the victim of abuse, neglect or domestic violence.

Immunization Registry.

We may use and disclose immunization information about your child to help maintain a regional and state registry that supports the sharing of vaccine information with other healthcare providers and limited information with schools, child care, and other agencies.

Worker's Compensation.

If your child is employed, we may release health information for workers compensation or similar programs. These programs provide benefits for work-related injuries or illness.

Health Oversight Activities.

We may disclose health information to a health oversight agency for activities authorized by law. These oversight activities include, for example, audits, investigations, inspections, and licensure. These activities are necessary for the government to monitor the health care system, government programs, and compliance with civil rights laws.

Law Enforcement.

We may release your child's health information for law enforcement purposes, such as:

- to identify or locate a suspect, fugitive, material witness, victim or missing person, or in connection with suspected criminal activity;
- to a federal agency investigating our compliance with federal privacy regulations; or
- to report a crime in emergency circumstances.

Lawsuits and Disputes.

If you are involved in a lawsuit or a dispute, we may disclose medical information about you in response to a court or administrative order. We may also disclose medical information about you in response to a subpoena, discovery request, or other lawful process by someone else involved in the dispute. We would only disclose this information if efforts have been made to tell you about the request (which may include written notice to you) to allow you/your child to obtain an order protecting the information requested or if we receive a court order protecting the information.

Coroners, Medical Examiners and Funeral Directors.

We may release your child's health information to a coroner or medical examiner. This may be necessary, for example, to identify a deceased person or determine the cause of death. We may also release medical information about patients of Valley Children's Healthcare to funeral directors as necessary to carry out their duties.

National Security and Intelligence Activities.

We may release medical information about your child to authorized federal officials for intelligence, counterintelligence, and other national security activities as authorized by law.

Protective Services for the President and Others.

We may disclose medical information about your child to authorized federal officials so they may provide protection to the President, other authorized persons or foreign heads of state or conduct special investigations.

Inmates.

If your child is an inmate of a correctional institution or under the custody of a law enforcement official, we may release medical information about your child to the correctional institution or law enforcement official. This release would be necessary (1) for the institution to provide your child with health care; (2) to protect your child's health and safety or the health and safety of others; or (3) for the safety and security of the correctional institution.

You/Your Child's Rights

Note: In limited circumstances, decisions and rights are held by the minor child who are granted the legal right to consent to treatment Authorization.

Although your child's health record is the physical property of Valley Children's Healthcare, the information belongs to you and/or your child, subject to applicable law. We may use or disclose your child's health information for any purpose that is listed in this notice without your written authorization. We will not use your health information for any other reason without your written authorization. We will obtain written authorization from you prior to using or disclosing your child's protected health information for marketing purposes. We will also obtain authorization for any use or disclosure of psychotherapy notes, as defined by HIPAA, unless an exception to authorization is applicable. If you authorize us to use or disclose your child's health information, you can revoke the authorization at any time.

Right to Inspect and Copy.

You and/or your child may have the right to inspect and copy information that may be used to make decisions about your child's care for a fee, subject to applicable law. Usually, this includes medical and billing records, but may not include some mental health information. If you want to review or receive a copy of these records, whether electronically or hardcopy, you must make a request in writing. We may charge a fee for the cost of copying, or providing in electronic format, and for mailing the records. You may also request access to our patient portals to assist with access to your and/or your child's information. We may also deny you access to certain information or the patient portals. If we do deny access, we will give the reason, in writing. We will also explain how you may appeal the decision notice at our website, www.valleychildrens.org.

Right to Amend.

If you feel that information we have about your child is incorrect or incomplete, you may ask us to amend the information. You have the right to request an amendment as long as the information is kept by or for the hospital. We may deny your request for an amendment if it is not in writing or does not include a reason to support the request. Please note that even if we accept your request, we are not required to delete any information from your health record.

Right to an Accounting of Disclosures.

You have the right to request a list of certain disclosures of health information about your child. This accounting will list the times we have given your health information to others. The list will include the dates of the disclosures, the names of the people or organizations to whom the information was disclosed, a description of the information, and the reason. Disclosures for the following reasons will not be included on the list:

disclosures for treatment, payment or healthcare operations; disclosures of information in our Hospital directory; disclosures for national security purposes; disclosures you have authorized and disclosures made directly to you.

Your request must state a time period which may not be longer than six years and may not include dates before April 14, 2003. Your request should indicate in what form you want the list (for example, on paper, electronically). The first list you request within a 12 month period will be free. For additional lists, we may charge you for the costs of providing the list. We will notify you of the cost involved and you may choose to withdraw or modify your request at that time before any costs are incurred.

Right to Request Restrictions.

You have the right to request a restriction or limitation on the health information we use or disclose for treatment, payment or health care operations. You also have the right to request a limit on the health information we disclose about you to someone who is involved in your child's care or the payment for your child's care, like a family member or friend. We are not required to agree to the request. If we do agree, we will comply with your request unless the information is needed to provide emergency treatment. In certain circumstances, under federal law, Valley Children's Healthcare will honor special restrictions on the disclosure of information to a health plan if the services are paid in full and out-of-pocket by the patient.

You have a right to opt out of the sharing of your child's health information to the CVHIE or to the immunization registry. Information regarding opting out will be provided to you at your request.

Right to Request Confidential Communications.

You have the right to request that we communicate with you about medical matters in a certain way or at a certain location. For example, you can ask that we only contact you at work or by mail.

Right to a Paper Copy of This Notice.

You have the right to a paper copy of this notice. You may ask us to give you a copy of this notice at any time. Even if you have agreed to receive this notice electronically, you are still entitled to a paper copy of this notice.

You may obtain a copy of this notice at our website, www.valleychildrens.org.

Complaints

If you believe your/your child's privacy rights have been violated, you may file a complaint with the hospital. To file a complaint, contact the Valley Children's Healthcare Privacy Officer, 9300 Valley Children's Place, Mail Stop GE26, Madera, California, 93636, (559) 353-5401. All complaints must be in writing. You may also file a complaint directly with the Secretary of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, at the Office for Civil Rights. We will not take any retaliation against you if you file a complaint.
